Sponsorship Terms and Conditions

Art Requirements: .jpg, .png, or high-res PDF format preferred. Please call to discuss possible options.

Deadlines: Space is limited. If artwork is not submitted appropriately, KWPR reserves the right to run advertising as it sees fit.

Conditions: The County shall approve all advertising, material, announcements or any other communications displayed and/or exhibited in its Program Guide. No defamatory, libelous, slanderous, obscene, religious or political advertising, or other advertising at the County's sole discretion, that fails to meet the County's standards as set forth below, may be accepted for display in the Guide. The Contractor shall comply with generally accepted industry standards with respect to good taste and applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to truth in advertising, copyrights, and trademarks. The County will not accept advertisements that are deemed unacceptable to the County staff and/or County Administrator, or advertisements that may be categorized as:

- False, misleading or deceptive
- Controversial
- Obscene or pornographic
- Defamatory or scornful of a particular individual or group of persons
- Inflammatory, or supportive of lawlessness or violent action
- Promoting alcohol, illegal drugs, firearms or tobacco products
- Promoting illegal or destructive behavior
- Reasonable clarification or intent of statements contained in advertisements may be required by the County before approval

The decision of County staff shall be subject to appeal to the County Administrator. The County Administrator's decision shall be final.

For more information, please contact Parks and Recreation at 804-769-4981.
